

MIDWAY AND WATERTON ANNOUNCE AGREEMENT IN PRINCIPLE FOR THE SALE AND ACQUISITION OF MIDWAY'S 30% INTEREST IN SPRING VALLEY

DENVER, CO – November 12, 2015 Midway Gold Corp. (“Midway”) and Waterton Global Resource Management (“Waterton”) jointly announce that they have reached an agreement in principle through Midway’s subsidiary, Midway Gold US Inc., to sell its 30% interest in the Spring Valley joint venture to a subsidiary of Waterton Precious Metals Fund II Cayman, LP. Waterton Precious Metals Fund II Cayman, LP has also announced that it will be acquiring the remaining 70 percent interest in the Spring Valley project from Barrick Gold Corporation’s (NYSE:ABX)(TSX:ABX) (“Barrick”) in a separate transaction.

Pursuant to a letter of intent, Midway and Waterton have agreed to negotiate in good faith and attempt to close the transaction for Midway’s interest Spring Valley by December 15, 2015. Some of the relevant terms are as follows:

- The minimum purchase price will be US$25 million;
- Waterton acquires all of Midway’s interest in the Spring Valley joint venture and any other interests in real property and mining claims located in Pershing County, Nevada;
- Waterton will acquire any proof of claim filed by Barrick against Midway and there shall be no recovery with respect to such claims; and
- Transaction is not subject to financing or additional due diligence.

Bill Zisch, President and CEO of Midway stated, “The closing of this transaction would realize significant value for Midway and its stakeholders and represents meaningful progress in Midway’s ongoing reorganization.”

“We are pleased to have reached an agreement in principle with Midway for their 30% in Spring Valley,” stated Isser Elishis, CIO of Waterton. “With the completion of this transaction, and our acquisition of Barrick’s 70% interest in Spring Valley, we look forward to moving quickly to advance the project and integrate the asset into Waterton’s growing portfolio,” continued Mr. Elishis.

The letter of intent does not constitute a binding commitment or obligation on either Midway or Waterton to proceed with the transaction. The agreement in principle is subject to the satisfaction of several conditions including, among other things, Waterton’s acquisition of Barrick’s interest in Spring Valley, negotiation and execution of definitive documentation, and entry of an order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Colorado approving the transaction. There is no assurance that these conditions will be satisfied.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements about the Midway Gold Corp. (the “Company”) and its business. Forward looking statements are statements that are not historical facts and include, but are not limited to, statements about potential outcomes in the Chapter 11 case filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Colorado, whether the transaction will close, whether conditions precedent for the transaction can be met, expected closing of the Spring Valley transaction, whether the parties will agree upon definitive transaction documents consistent with their agreement in principle, whether the Bankruptcy Court would approve the transaction, that the transaction would realize value, the transaction would progress the Company's reorganization efforts and other statements, estimates and expectations. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as: "plan", "expect", "anticipate", "intend", "estimate", "budgeted" and similar expressions or the negative of such expressions or which by their nature refer to future events. The forward-looking statements in this press release are subject to various risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause the Company's actual results or achievements to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by forward looking statements.
